BEYMER, BAUMAN & CO. CAUTION.—Certain unprincipled parties, attributing our success solely to our "guarantee label," are imitating the same, even to the color of the paper on which it is printed. We therefore soution consumers to examine carefully the little S. BUCKLAND & SON.

In color it looked like a California dia-mond. Its form was oval, its length about an inch, and its breadth half as much. In its healing virtue, Mrs. Wormaley and her son, who were present, were putting greatfaith, telling of strange cures it had perform

We had been examining the stone for a few minutes, when suddenly the patient raised her oyes and saw bending over her the face of a stranger. With a scream that thrilled the heart, making the blood ran cold with horror, she lesped from the bed, and amid sobs and cries shouted her fear of the pursuing dogs. We left the room at once, and she speedily became more quiet, and when we departed from the house, was again breathing regularly, and was free from all delirium.

ing regularly, and was free from all delirium.

How this awful case may terminate, we cannot, of course, tell. Should the stone prove efficacious in the case, it will be wet, we are told, two or three days before it has performed its full offices. In the terrible un-
